This privacy notice has been written to inform prospective, current, and former employees, including supply and agency staff, of Chester Diocesan Academies Trust (CDAT) about how and why we process your personal data, including during the recruitment process.

Who are we?

Chester Diocesan Academies Trust (CDAT) is a data controller as defined by the UK GDPR. This means that we determine the purposes for which your personal data is processed and the manner of the processing. We will only collect and use your personal data in ways that are compliant with data protection legislation.

CDAT has appointed Veritau Ltd as its Data Protection Officer (DPO). The role of the DPO is to monitor our compliance with the UK GDPR and the Data Protection Act 2018 and advise on data protection issues. If you would like to discuss this privacy notice or our use of your data, please contact Veritau or Chris Williams (chris.williams@cdat.co.uk) CDAT Director of Operations.

Veritau's contact details are:

Please ensure you include the name of your school in all correspondence.

What personal information do we collect?

The personal data we collect about you during the course of your employment includes:

- Personal identifiers, including your name, contact details, date of birth, employee or teacher number and national insurance number.
- Professional memberships and your qualified teacher status, where relevant.
- Information about your workplace attendance and reasons for any absences.
- Information about professional development and performance, including reviews and any disciplinary information.
- Any updates to your records of your criminal history, including your DBS check.
- Emergency contact information.
- Financial and payroll data, including bank account information, tax, national insurance and pension contributions.
- Information contained in your contract, including your job role and responsibilities, start date, employment location and contracted hours etc.
- Photographs or video images, including CCTV footage, where schools have CCTV installed.
- Medical information which is relevant to your employment, including any disability you disclose.
- Healthcare and medical information such as doctor details, allergies, medication and dietary requirements, vaccination details, etc.
- Records of communications and interactions we have with you, including telephone call recordings, where schools operate this functionality.
- Equality monitoring information, such as your ethnicity, religious beliefs and gender.
- Information in relation to your use of the school's network and IT systems i.e. e-monitoring.

During a recruitment exercise, we will collect the following:

- Information about your right to work in the UK, including ID documents.
- Education and qualifications, including copies of certificates.
- Your employment history, including employment references.
- Initial records of relevant criminal history data, including your DBS check.
- Information publicly available through online searches on shortlisted job candidates to identify any incidents or issues, related to suitability to work with children, that may need to be raised or clarified at interview.

Please note that only limited details are held by schools in relation to supply and agency staff. In this case, the agency or similar company will be the data controller for the majority of your personal data. We therefore recommend reviewing their privacy information in addition to ours.

Why do we collect your personal information?

We process your information for the purposes outlined below:

- To ensure your right to work and assess your suitability for the role during the recruitment process.
- To meet our safeguarding obligation to pupils and the school workforce.
- To pay your salary and conduct related payroll functions.
- To monitor and manage staff absence.
- To monitor and manage professional development, training and performance.
- To make any reasonable adjustments you may need in relation to a health condition or disability.
- To promote the school, including in newsletters, on the school website and social media platforms.
- To monitor and inform our policies on equality and diversity.

What is our lawful basis for processing your information?

Under the UK GDPR, it is essential to have a lawful basis when processing personal information. For workforce data processing, we normally rely on the following lawful bases:

- Article 6(1)(b) - contractual obligation
- Article 6(1)(c) - legal obligation
- Article 6(1)(e) - public task

There may be occasions where our processing is not covered by one of the legal bases above. In that case, we may rely on Article 6(1)(f) - legitimate interests. We only rely on legitimate interests when we are using your data in ways you would reasonably expect.

If we share your information in a health emergency, we may rely on the lawful basis of Article 6(1)(d) – vital interests.

For the processing of personal data relating to criminal convictions and offences, processing meets Schedule 1, Part 2 of the Data Protection Act 2018 as below:

- Condition 10 - preventing or detecting unlawful acts
- Condition 18 - safeguarding of children and individuals at risk

Some of the information we collect about you is classed as special category data under the UK GDPR. The additional conditions that allow for processing this data are:

- Article 9(2)(b) - employment and social security and social protection law
- Article 9(2)(g) - reasons of substantial public interest

The applicable condition in Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 for Article 9(2)(b) is:

- Condition 1 - Employment, social security and social protection

The applicable substantial public interest conditions in Schedule 1 of the Data Protection Act 2018 are:

- Condition 6 - statutory and government purposes
- Condition 8 – equality of opportunity or treatment
- Condition 10 - preventing or detecting unlawful acts
- Condition 16 - support for individuals with a particular disability or medical condition
- Condition 18 - safeguarding of children and vulnerable people

If we share your information in a health emergency, we may rely on the additional condition of Article 9(2)(c) – vital interests.

Who do we obtain your information from?

We normally receive this information directly from you, for example via documents and other records and information supplied by you in the course of your job application or employment period. However, we may also receive some information from the following third parties:

- Official bodies, such as the Teaching Regulation Agency and Disclosure and Barring Service.
- Your previous employers.
- Your nominated referees.
- Relevant recruitment or supply agencies.

Who do we share your personal data with?

We may share your information with the following organisations:

- Department for Education (DfE).
- Disclosure and Barring Service (DBS).
- HM Revenue and Customs (HMRC).
- Department for Work and Pensions (DWP), if applicable.
- Your pension provider.
- Staff benefits provider, in relation to any salary sacrifice agreements.
- Your Trade Union, if applicable.
- Our suppliers and advisors, including insurers, lawyers, consultants, and accountant or payroll provider.
- Our IT application providers.
- Prospective future employers, landlords, letting agents, or mortgage brokers where you have asked them to contact us for a reference.
- Relevant recruitment or supply agencies.

We may also share information with other third parties where there is a lawful basis to do so. For example, we sometimes share information with the police for the purposes of crime detection or prevention. We may also share information across the schools within our trust.

How long do we keep your personal data for?

We will retain your information in accordance with our Records Management Policy. The retention period for most of the information we process about you is determined by statutory obligations. Any personal information which we are not required by law to retain will only be kept for as long as is reasonably necessary to fulfil its purpose.

We may also retain some information for historical and archiving purposes, where it is in the public interest.

Artificial intelligence (AI)

We may use some systems and platforms that incorporate an AI function. Where we do this, we ensure that the data is held securely and is not used for training the AI model. AI does not make any automated decisions about individuals, and outputs are always subject to human oversight.

International transfers of data

Although we are based in the UK, some of the digital information we hold may be stored on computer servers located outside the UK. Some of the IT applications we use may also transfer data outside the UK.

Usually your information will not be transferred outside the European Economic Area, which is deemed to have adequate data protection standards by the UK government. In the event that your information is transferred outside the EEA, we will take reasonable steps to ensure your data is protected and appropriate safeguards are in place.

What rights do you have over your data?

Under the UK GDPR, individuals have the following rights in relation to the processing of their personal data:

- to be informed about how we process your personal data. This notice fulfils this obligation.
- to request a copy of the personal data we hold about you.
- to request that your personal data is amended if inaccurate or incomplete.
- to request that your personal data is erased where there is no compelling reason for its continued processing.
- to request that the processing of your personal data is restricted.
- to object to your personal data being processed.

If you have any concerns about the way we have handled your personal data or would like any further information, then please contact our DPO using the details provided above.

If we cannot resolve your concerns then you may also complain to the Information Commissioner's Office, which is the UK's data protection regulator. Their contact details are below:

Phone: 0303 123 1113 or via their live chat. Opening hours are Monday to Friday between 9am and 5pm (excluding bank holidays). You can also report, enquire, register and raise complaints with the ICO using their web form on Contact us | ICO.

Changes to this notice

We reserve the right to change this privacy notice at any time. We will normally notify you of changes that affect you. However, please check regularly to ensure you have the latest version.
